Greeks

(Continued from page 1A)

olutely no alcoholic beverage may be consumed at any pledge functions.

The responsibility for enforcing regulations rests upon the president, vice president, pledgemaster or pledgemistress of each house.

First semester freshmen are eligible for "Honors Pledging" if they have attained a mid-semester index of at least 2.5 (out of a possible 4.0) grade point average. Second semester freshmen and all other students must have cumulative indexes of at least 2.0.

Any member whose semester and/or cumulative indexes fall below a 1.75 will be immediately placed on "inactive" status and will remain there until the index is above 1.75. An inactive member is prohibited from attending any Greek function other than academic programs.

The new constitution also includes provision for a Greek Senate Judicial Board to rule over Greeks, groups of Greeks, or Greek houses who have been charged with rules violations.

No later than four weeks after the beginning of each semester each Greek house must file a signed copy of the Fraternity/Sorority Chapter Citizenship Pledge with the Greek Senate vice president along with the house constitution and by-laws. The pledge indicates house responsibility to conduct affairs "in a manner that will be a credit to the local community, the college, and individual members of the house." Each house has a Conduct Committee.

Each Greek house is also to have a principal adviser and associate advisers. Current principal advisers are: Dr. Eunice Davis, assistant professor, Social and Behavioral Sciences Department, Alpha Beta Chi; Georgia Murray of Hornell, Delta Chi Omega; Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Rucker, Pi Nu Epsilon (Rucker is a professor of business administration); Mark Amman, associate professor, Physical and Life Sciences Department, Gamma Theta Gamma; Dr. Robert Love, dean emeritus of School of Allied Health, Kappa Sigma Epsilon; Psi Delta Omega, Robert Sullivan, chairperson, Food Service Department; and Arthur McLaughlin, associate professor, Civil Engineering Department, Pi Rho Zeta.