
KAPPA SIGMA EPSILON

Kappa Sigma Epsilon evolved from Kappa Sigma Kappa in November 1954, the chapter voted on a constitution to become localized—a step which was necessitated by the State University of New York. This year plans have been made for a beautiful new forty-eight man fraternity house.

Kappa Sigma won this year's Fall Festival sign, Collegiate Christmas sign, March of Dimes Trophy and second place in the Snow Sculpture Contest.

Our social activities include parties, desserts, intramural sports and the annual Sweetheart Ball.
Kappa Sigma Epsilon was first known at Alfred as Kappa Sigma Kappa. It was founded in 1954 and became localized in 1955 as a result of a decree by the State University of New York.

Officers of Kappa Sigma Epsilon Fraternity

Robert McKinney ......................................................... Treasurer
Elisher Williams .......................................................... Vice President
Joseph Morrison .......................................................... Secretary
William Quinn ............................................................ President
Kappa Sigma Epsilon

Kappa Sigma Epsilon, formerly Kappa Sigma Kappa, was founded in 1954. It became localized in 1955 through a decree by the State University of New York.
Kappa Sigma Epsilon

Kappa Sigma Epsilon Fraternity was founded at Alfred in January, 1953 as Alpha Tau Fraternity. In March, 1953, the group was initiated into Kappa Sigma Kappa National Fraternity. On October 11, 1954, they ended their affiliation with the national fraternity and became Kappa Sigma Epsilon.

It is the belief of Kappa Sigma that the pledging period should be beneficial to the pledge as well as to the fraternity. This is the foundation of their belief in helping rather than hazing during the pledge period.

Kappa Sigma Epsilon, evolved from Kappa Sigma Kappa in October 1954. Since September 1955, it was located at 8 Elm Street and in March of 1959, moved into its present home at 35 W. University Street. A young fraternity, consisting of men who continually strive to build a house with an admirable reputation. Kappa Sigma Epsilon feels that recognition in scholastic, social and athletic activities is attainable through co-operation of the members stemming from a feeling of true brotherhood. Kappa Sigma Epsilon, with their sister sorority, Delta Chi Omega, placed second in the Harvest Ball Booth Contest. They have won permanent possession of the IFC Scholarship trophy. The annual Easter Party for orphans and the Sweetheart Ball are highlights of the year's social activities.