THE GREEKS GO FORMAL

Each year during Spring Quarter, the fraternities and sororities celebrate their “Spring Fling.” Long gowns and dress suits are donned and cars filled to overflowing capacity as the migration to the Beacon, K of C, or the Country Club begins. Each weekend gives another Greek its turn, and the occasions are looked forward to. Saturday night marks the “Big Dance,” followed by a picnic the next day. The weekends finally end, and life continues as usual with only memories and favors to remember the wonderful times by.
